[redacted] as Chairman of the Group, opened the meeting by referring to the memorandum of 27 May 1953 from the Secretary of the IAC to the DDP which quoted a portion of General Partridge's memorandum of 25 May 1953 withdrawing G-2's request for deferment of the source control project, pending completion of "agreed activities" negotiations. [redacted] read the following two paragraphs of General Partridge's memorandum:

"I indicated my concurrence with the idea of returning the Source Control paper to a Working Group to resolve service differences of viewpoint.

"In response to a call from Mr. Reber, I am forwarding this memorandum to officially record the modification of my position as indicated in my memorandum of 13 March 1953 to conform to our understanding arrived at in our /DCI and General Partridge/ conference of 1 May 1953."

Col. Riley expressed Army's desire and realization of the need for a source control mechanism but stated the following basic objections to the Terms of Reference:
